

BSNBCS FAMILY RESOURCE DATABASE

Explore our comprehensive database that consists of several organizations that provide local community services to our diverse population in Brooklyn and its environs. There is information in the following areas that our families may have interests.

1. Covid-19
2. Family Health
3. Cultural Enrichment Activities
4. Mentorship
5. Sports / Fitness
6. Afterschool / Summer Programs

COVID-19

The information provided on Covid-19 ranges between rental assistance and food relief for families facing economic difficulties or in need of food during the pandemic. Interested individuals will have access to the services offered by these community organizations and their contact information by clicking on the link.

FAMILY HEALTH

The information provided on family health services highlights physical and mental health services offered by several community organizations and are available to all family members. Interested individuals can have access to the multiple services offered by the organizations and their contact information by clicking on the link.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT ACTIVITIES

The information on cultural enrichment is about extracurricular opportunities for young children and teens. Interested individuals will have access to the services offered by these community organizations and their contact information by clicking on the link.

MENTORSHIP

The information provided on mentorship for young children and teens in the New York area includes one-on-one and group programs. Interested individuals who would like to have access to the services offered by these community organizations and their contact information, can gain access by clicking on the link.

SPORTS / FITNESS

The information provided on sports and fitness covers various sport and fitness activities opportunities offered by numerous community organizations in our area. Interested individuals will have access to the services offered by these organizations and their contact information by clicking on the link.

AFTERSCHOOL / SUMMER PROGRAMS

The New York City area offers a wide range of afterschool and summer programs for young children and teens. Our database has a wealth of information that interested individuals can have access and learn about these community programs and obtain their respective contact information by clicking on the link.

